Chicago Grand Jury Charges Embezzlement and Larceny in Three Bills.

ARREST ORDERS ISSUED

Founder of Company Now in Paris, Brother in Canada; Return Sought.

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Three true bills charging Samuel and Martin Insull with embezzlement, and larceny by bailee were returned today by the Cook county grand jury.

The bills were returned after less than an hour's deliberation by the grand jury on evidence given by half a dozen witnesses.

The grand jurors immediately after finishing their deliberations marched into a criminal court room where the true bills were made public as indictments.

Caplases were issued immediately for the arrest of the two Insulls.

State's Attorney John A. Swanson announced he would start action immediately to extradite Samuel Insull from Paris and Martin Insull from Canada.

State's Attorney Swanson said the action was started because the two men paid no heed to his request that they return to the United States voluntarily for questioning.

Will Fight Extradition. Samuel Insull has been in Paris since shortly after the financing companies for his vast utility system crashed several months ago. Martin Insull is in Orillia, Ont. (Canada). It was indicated in business circles that both would fight to the last ditch any attempt to extradite them.

"The Insulls have not replied," Swanson said, "if these people who have caused losses of more than two billion dollars to investors will not return voluntarily, then I shall use every means given me by the law to bring them back."

Testimony before the grand jury, he indicated, revolved about a reputed deal in which $334,720 was taken from treasuries of various Insull firms to bolster an alleged dummy brokerage account for Martin Insull.

Acquaintances of the Insulls, however, said they were certain the brothers would fight extradition and they expressed the opinion they might be successful.

Chicago lawyers for the Insulls refused to discuss the attitude of their clients toward extradition. A Chicago newspaper, however, reached Martin Insull by long distance telephone. Questions, the paper said, elicited a single reply: "I have nothing to say."

BURGLARS VISIT 2
UNION CO. TOWNS

Store at Pharisburg Entered; Alarm Halts Robbery at Broadway.

Special to The Star. MARYSVILLE, Oct. 4.—The general store at Pharisburg and a filling station at Broadway were entered by burglars last night. Merchandise valued at about $50 and $125 in cash were taken from the store at Pharisburg owned by Wayne Prael. The loss was covered by Prael when he opened the store at about 5:30 this morning. The loot included tobacco, overalls, flour, cigars, and stock. Entrance to the building was gained by breaking a window.

The ringing of a burglar alarm frightened a man attempting to open the cash register in the filling station owned by John Cline at Broadway shortly after 3 a. m. today. Cline arrived at the station in time to find two shots at a man running north from the station on the Marion road. Sheriff Roush and Deputy Robert Ackerman were called but found no clues.

The burglar alarm was installed in the filling station after it had been robbed about a year ago.

AL SMITH ON TICKET IN N. Y.

Former Governor Proposed as Candidate in Effort To Break Deadlock.

By The Associated Press. ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 4.—The Albany, N. Y., Democratic caucus assembled in the Tammany conference room today in an attempt to break the deadlock over whom shall be named for governor. A Wagner-Smith-Thacher ticket was proposed.

Under the suggestion advanced by John H. McCooey, Brooklyn lawyer, the gubernatorial nomination would go to U. S. Senator Robert F. Wagner, Alfred E. Smith would be nominated for governor, and Mayor John Boyd Thacher of Albany would be given a place on the ticket, either for lieutenant governor or comptroller.

Would Sidekick Lehman. The plan called for the complete sidetracking of Albert H. Lehman, choice of both Governor Roosevelt and Smith for governor.

As Smith went into the conference room, his friends said they doubted whether he would sanction any agreement calling for the elimination of Lieutenant Governor Lehman.

Wagner himself made it clear that he did not want to leave the senate and was more anxious to be a candidate to succeed himself there.

The New York organization leaders, however, as deadlocked as when they arrived Saturday, took the position that Wagner should abide by their decision, whatever it may be.

Associates of Smith, who has held no political office for four years, said he might welcome the senatorial nomination if it did not involve sidetracking his old friend Lehman. Smith planned to place Lehman's name in nomination for governor.

Remembered Gals Extradition. While Gov. Roosevelt was considering whether he would accept the convention's invitation to speak today, Smith put the finishing touches on his speech nominating Lehman.

The convention adopted yesterday a resolution proposed by John F. Curry, Tammany chief, promising that the state Democratic would work unceasingly for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket. The party platform, adopted last night, proposed that the resources of the state be mobilized to prevent hunger and suffering and that light wines and beer be legalized at the next session of congress.

Republicans Agree

By The Associated Press. BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 4.—In endorsement of a slate headed by Col. William J. "Wild Bill" Donovan promised to end today the convention of the New York state Republicans.

A midnight hotel party of leaders produced a slate described as satisfactory to the majority of the delegates.

Donovan was named for governor on the ticket to be submitted to convention balloting today. The young lieutenant secretary of war, F. Trubee Donovan, a member of President Taft's cabinet, was named for lieutenant governor.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Advances of $1,182,734,958 in actual cash to aid agriculture, commerce and industry to recover from the depression were announced today by the Reconstruction Corporation, in a summary of loans made during its first seven months of operation.

In addition, advances to state and political subdivisions for relieving distress were totaled by the corporation at $35,555,171 to the close of September, Sept. 30.

The corporation's statement, showing that its financial operations have involved approximately one-third of the $3,000,000,000 fund placed at its disposal by congress, dealt only with general statistics and did not mention individual borrowers. Its chairman, Allen S. Boyd, said today that the corporation's first report to congress on individual loans, and a timetable to be decided Thursday whether the August loan report will be made public.

Decrease in Mortgage Defaults. The corporation said that of $1,118,552,958 direct loans, borrowers on Aug. 31 had repaid $180,800,597, leaving $937,752,361 outstanding. Loans of $228,101,368 had been authorized in addition to cash actually paid out, but $35,555,171 of this amount was cancelled by the borrowers and $190,546,958 had not been called for. The report cited a steady decline in loan requests.

Farm loans made by the secretary of agriculture averaged $126.67 each and were made in every state except Rhode Island.

The corporation's direct cash loans to 5,600 borrowers included: Four thousand, three hundred and twenty-four banks and trust companies; 591 receivers of banks closed when the loans were made; 643 building and loan associations; 79 insurance companies; 49 mortgage loan companies; 49 railroad; 17 livestock credit corporations; 19

GERMANY PLANS WORLD AIR LINE

Object of Von Gronau's Trip To Make Survey

By International News Service
WASHINGTON, D. C.—That the world's first air mail flight of Captain Wolfgang von Gronau, famous German aviator, and two fellow countrymen, is the preliminary step towards the establishment of the most ambitious aviation undertaking yet attempted has just been learned from an authentic source in Berlin.

The undertaking is nothing less than an air mail and passenger service which would link Berlin with the United States, Canada and the Orient. For years, in fact ever since aviation began to take such giant strides, Germany has been considering the possibility of such a world-wide line of aerial transport, but up to the present has cherished the belief that only the Zeppelin type would be suitable for the undertaking. Of course, one can readily see that the outfit for the inauguration of such a service would be terrific.

However, when von Gronau made two successful trips from Germany to the United States via flying boat, the powers that be in Berlin began to sit up and take notice. Here was an angle they had failed to take into consideration.

Accordingly, they sent von Gronau off on a secret mission to check the feasibility of carrying out the round-the-world air service with the water type plane he had used on the two previous occasions. The German has had already reported to his government that the route he took, via Iceland, Greenland and Newfoundland, on his previous jaunts to the United States, is practical, providing proper refueling stations are established at designated points along the route.

But von Gronau had never gone further West than Chicago on the other flights. So his orders on this occasion were to continue his flight across the United States, over the Pacific to Asia and across Siberia to Europe.

The feasibility of the German plan for a round-the-world air service along the Arctic route is favorably commented upon by leading aviation experts. But, although the jump over the Pacific would probably follow the route taken by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh about a year ago, when he flew to Japan and China. At that time Col. Lindbergh spoke of the possibility of establishing airplane service between the United States and the Orient along that route.

The feasibility of the German plan for a round-the-world air service along the Arctic route is favorably commented upon by leading aviation experts. But, although

"I didn't catch my stockings on anything, yet look at that run—"

"I can tell you why that happened, Marie—you must have destroyed their elasticity—"

"It's elasticity that makes your stockings wear. Every thread of a new stocking is like a tiny elastic band—a pro under strain without breaking. But wrong washing destroys elasticity—then run start. So I always wash my own stockings with Lux. And I wash them after every single wearing. Lux preserves elasticity—prevents 'difficult' colors—washes out all destructive perspiration acids. Use Lux and save your stockings in my advice to every girl."

My Beauty Hint

BY CLARA BOW

THE best of all beauty hints is to keep your face as free from wrinkles as possible. One can relax standing as well as sitting or lying down. Here is the way to do it: Stand with feet apart, hands on hips. Allow the shoulders and head to drop and the waist to bend. Close the eyes if possible and hold this position, easily, for three minutes.

Songs were contributed by Mrs. Harry T. Williams and Miss Maye Evangelina Lawrence. An informal discussion of the early history of Ohio was in charge of Mrs. E. E. Smith.

The club voted to assist in the welfare sewing this winter. Mrs. L. H. Heston, president of the club was elected to be its delegate at the central district meeting of the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs Oct. 15-16 in Columbus. Mrs. James O. Doid was elected as a member.

REAL ALGER GIRL

by The Associated Press
NEW YORK—A newspaper editor who trained her to act quickly and calmly in emergencies really is responsible for Jean Sargent's fame being in lights on Broadway.

It was while this brunette "torch" singer was a reporter on a Philadelphia newspaper that she appeared one evening in an amateur entertainment. A New York show manager was in the audience and offered her a letter of introduction to a theatrical agent.

Like a newspaper man rushing for a "deadline," she hurried to Broadway the next morning and immediately was escorted to a theater where Irving Berlin was giving an audition for prima donnas. Berlin listened to several "name" singers and then started to leave the theater in disgust. But Miss Sargent stepped in his path and persuaded him to listen to her first.

Although frightened, Miss Sargent's newspaper training came to her aid enough for her to begin, seemingly calm, a "blues" number.

Half way through the song she saw Berlin jump from his seat and rush upstairs. He wasn't running out on her, as she thought; he was running to get a contract for her to sign.

After her debut in "Face the Music," Miss Sargent has featured roles in "Flying Colours."

knew what time it was when he went out. We are—" She paused for a long time, and then said,
"anxious."

"Yes, ma'am," said Mrs. Mellish.
Her plainly banded hair made the nearest possible frame to her pump, pale face. The hair was iron grey. In the morning Mrs.
Mellish dressed to match her hair
in a strong iron-grey material which suggested in the most insistent manner reliability and moral worth.

"Will you ask if any one noticed
anything?"

"Certainly, ma'am," said Mrs.
Mellish.

She left Nan to a feeling that she had been knocking impudently upon a door that was not made to open. Then, as she stood waiting for Mrs. Mellish to return, it came to Nan that it was not so much that the door was not made to open,
as that it had been deliberately slammed in her face.

She stood there and thought about this. Why do people slam doors? Either because they are angry, or else because they have something to hide. There wasn't any reason why Mrs. Mellish should be angry with her. Had Mrs. Mellish by any chance got something to hide?

Mrs. Mellish came back into the room with the slow walk of a confidently covered woman who is concerned with her dignity. It appeared that nobody had noticed
anything.

"And you, Mrs. Mellish? Your room is the nearest."

"No, ma'am."

Her eyelids came down over her rather pale and prominent eyes.
There was the effect of a blind being pulled down. First the door of the house had been slammed, and now the blinds were down.

Nan found Ferdinand in the study.

"I want to go and see Room-mund," she said.

"Why?"

Nan put her hand to her cheek.
"She talked too much on the telephone—I suppose it was yesterday."

"How do you mean, she talked too much?" Ferdinand's eyes darted questions.

Nan pushed back her hair.
"She doesn't talk—much—to me
—as a rule. She wouldn't speak to me at all unless she simply had to.
But when I telephoned to ask her if she had seen Jervis she talked a lot."

"What did she say?"

"I think she was trying to make me angry. I can't remember what she said—it wasn't worth remembering." Her chin lifted a little.
"I just wondered why she said so much."

Ferdinand frowned.

"Do you want me to drive you
up there?"

Nan nodded.

They had a silent drive. When they came to the place where the wheel had come off Jervis' car two days before, Nan, on the seaward side, looked down over the cliff
with a steady thoughtful gaze.

She turned her eyes from the sea
to the square ugliness of Robert Leonard's house.

"Leonard's been away," said
Ferdinand. To Be Continued.

The Stars Say—

For Wednesday, Oct. 5

THE planetary forecast for this day is a very important one, showing important experiences and adventures in the business as well as personal life. These are likely to be of a very radical and far-reaching nature, having marked influence on the future destiny. Not only change, new environment and associates (romantic as well as business) but a substantial foothold upon enhanced fortune may be predicted.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a year of outstanding and sudden reversal of the affairs and the fortunes, with a radical change in business relations and interests as well as the personal life and destinies. There may be a rather sudden or spectacular touch or romance in the latter, and the reactions
may result in increased possessions of property, but be careful of petty quarrels, rash and impetuous acts and also of trivial gossip or slander. A child born on this day may make a splendid success in life by his talents.

Notable activity: John Erskine,

Stuyvesant of Community Grange
and Paul Smith of Bethlehem Grange were guests. During the grange were given by Mrs. Nell Little, Mrs. Harry Williams, Miss Agnes Berry and J.
W. Freshout.

"Beauty Spots in Ohio," was the subject of a talk by W. E. Sealand-ers. Edward Burroughs and Miss Dorothy Burroughs entertained with several xylophone and piano selections.

"Agriculture Under Present Conditions," was discussed by A. W.
Jones. A vocal quartet composed of the Misses Blancha and Grace
Chunk, Ralph Amstutz and Harold Chunk sang. A playlet, "Back Fence Neighbors," was presented by Mrs. Leah Owens and Mrs. Della Harris.

"Heart of a Wife"

—BY ADELE GARRISON

Hugh Grinstead Gave the Attacking Party Their Last Instruction, as They Waited for Dick to Signal the Moment of Attack.

A T Philip Veritess's question, my body stiffened unconsciously in rebellion at his dictum that neither Mary or I should remain
for a single minute in the woodland glade, where we had gathered in preparation for the attack upon the kidnappers. At my side I felt Mary's slender body in equally tense defiance of any edict which would send us from the scene, and I guessed that her joy in finding Noel safe had been distinctly tempered by his remark that the glade was no place for a woman, and by his patent disapproval of her presence there.

But there was no opportunity for us either to protest or acquiesce.
Hugh's voice, incisive, clear, for all that it was little more than a murmur, settled the question once for all.

"Unfortunately we have no choice
now," he said. "It is almost time for Dick to arrive, and we must be ready for action. There can be no change in our arrangements.
We did not expect Mrs. Graham and Miss Mary, who came in order to guide Lee Chow to me, but it was vitally necessary that they should come, and we ought to be most grateful."

"We must remember also that though this is distinctly no place
for women, two other women,
young, almost children, are held captive only a few yards from here.
We can think now of nothing else
but their plight. How about it, Noel?"

Noel was silent for a long second,
and I knew that he was fighting to get himself together after the shock of finding Mary so unexpectedly involved in this dangerous undertaking.

"There hasn't been anything new since," he said at last, gulping.
"Everything has been quiet as a church."

"You've heard no sound like a horse walking?" Hugh demanded.

"No," Noel answered. "But I'm not used to sounds in the woods."
"Perhaps you—" He turned to Brook.

"A horse? Walking?" Brook repeated in puzzled fashion. "You mean—"

"The horse had a rider," Hugh put in, "and the feet were muffled,
we are sure, so that you would not be apt to hear it unless it passed very near you."

"There's been nothing of the sort between this place and the farmhouse," Brook said decidedly. "Until just this minute I've been standing on the other side, with my face stuck out of the pines towards the shack and my ears cocked for any sound, as per your instructions.
But—I don't know—a horse with muffled hoofs, making only a little noise, might have come in from the other road and stopped the other side of the house without my hearing it."

"Then that's on the knees of the gods," Hugh said. "Are the men ready?"

"All set," Brook answered in an grimy. "They've got all the material, and as soon as you give the word we'll start doing business."

But where's Wynne?" he asked dis-appointedly. "I'll be all wet without Wynne."

"He's trailing the horse," Hugh answered. "He probably will report back here before it is time to begin operations. If he doesn't, either Mr. Underwood or I will take his place."

"That's all by me," Brook replied. "Would you mind going over the instructions again, sir?"

"When Mr. Graham flies over the house," Hugh replied, "you are each to seize the missiles assigned
you and stand ready for the signal.
When it is given, you are to creep forward as near to the house as you can get. If there are outside sentinels you must silence them,
and then go on to the door and windows. Mr. Underwood will be with one-half of you and I with the other half. As soon as we're all in position the men in front will smash in the doors and windows and those in the second row will be ready with the tear-gas bombs.
With any luck, we ought to be inside the house and all cleaned up within five minutes."

Harding Gridmen To Launch Title Drive Saturday

SHELBY WHIPPETS TO INVADE MARION FOR FIRST LEAGUE CLASH

Gallon To Visit Mansfield; Ashland Will Entertain Outside Bucyrus Eleven.

By Bob Kinnpatrick, Sports Editor, The Star

With all of the five member teams having gone through the customary warm-up procedure against non-league opposition, the call to arms will have forth this coming weekend and the North Central Ohio scholastic football league will launch the campaign to determine the rightful owner of the league's 1938 grid crown. Mansfield has held the crown three straight seasons now but fans are entertaining hopes the Whippermen may be shoved off the lofty perch before this is written to the current title campaign.

Only five teams will battle it out for the top this year instead of the even half dozen as in previous years. Bucyrus decided last winter that it could function very well without the assistance of the league and withdrew following a dispute involving the Redmen and Mansfield.

Of the five league entries, four of them will rally forth this week to start the quest for the elusive crown. Ashland alone will wait another week before opening up the championship campaign. The Whippermen will be host to Bucyrus, the fourth non-league foe, and there appears no doubt as to the outcome of the battle. The Star-men have grabbed three straight victories and looked impressive in every one and this fourth with Bucyrus is about as good as in the bag. This Ashland team is plenty tough, if you haven't figured that out already.

Coach Dewey Boyer will hurl his Harding High charges at the formidable Shelby Whippers in the opening league encounter Saturday. The game, besides opening Harding's league schedule, will also launch the home season of the Marion outfit. The Red and Black has racked up 31-0 and 19-0 victories over Mt. Vernon and Delaware, both of them in foreign territory. The Shelby conflict will be played at Fairground field.

Shelby promises to provide far tougher opposition for the Presidents than has either Mt. Vernon or Delaware.

While Marion and Shelby are deciding which of the two has the better team, Gallon will be making a mighty effort to halt the winning ways of Mansfield on the home field of the Flyers. No one conceded the Orangemen much chance

Purple-Wolverine Battle Tops Schedule in Big Ten

By The Associated Press CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The 1938 football campaign is still a babe, but Northwestern and Michigan will meet Saturday in a strife that will just about eliminate the lower from the Western conference championship race.

With decisive triumphs Saturday, both teams jumped from the underclass class right into the front ranks of the favorites. Ranked as darkhorses before their opening tests last Saturday, both clubs surprised even their coaches. Northwestern yielded a lot of motion, but smashed Missouri 27 to 0, and Michigan, rolling along at an even, methodical pace, crushed Michigan State's strong eleven, 25 to 0. Unlucky injuries occur this week, each will test its most powerful army into the battle.

Minnesota's camp today was just as concerned over the condition of its Uhl, as over its important struggle with Purdue Saturday. Uhl was suffering from a combination of ailments and his condition was critical. The rest of the Gophers were ready Pressure will be on all squads. Illinois, which will meet another minor opponent, Bradley, which took a wallop from Iowa Saturday. Coach Clarence Spears was not very thrilled over Wisconsin's 7 to 2 victory over Marquette, and has started shifting his lineup around again in readiness for Iowa. The Hawkeyes will have added strength with the return of Marvin Kuhn, fullback, Ed Doty, guard, and Eugene Clearman, end, who were out with injuries.

Ohio State performed satisfactorily against Ohio Wesleyan, and Coach Sam Williamson plans to stand on the same lineup, but Indiana, which just slipped Ohio 10 to 0, may present an altered front, especially in the line. The Hoosier forwards failed to stop Ohio thrusts consistently.

Chicago's preparation for the big battle against Yale at New Haven, have been hampered by injuries to backfield stars, but most of the cripples are back.

Notre Dame will open against Washburn Institute Saturday.

SHAKEUP PROBABLE IN LINEUP OF CUBS BEFORE NEXT SPRING

Three Vets, One Youngster Rumored for Sale by Cub Management.

By The Associated Press CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Already well scattered by blasts from New York Yankee guns, Chicago's Cubs today dispersed for the year, followed by rumors that several of them would be elsewhere next season.

Most of the vanquished athletes were on their way home or headed for hunting trips to which many baseball players are addicted during the off season.

Reports, which lacked anything like official verification, said Burleigh Grimes, Bob Smith and Johnny Moore, veterans, and young Stanley Hack probably would leave on. They may be used as trading material in moves to obtain a starting left-handed pitcher, and a batsman capable of hitting them frequently and long.

Grimes and Smith were not much help as pitchers, and Moore's hitting was streaky. Hack showed promise and rated as good trading timber. Grimes plans to undergo another thorough examination, after which he may have his ailing appendix removed.

Checks for their shares of the spoils will be mailed out in a day or two, by Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis, who must first decide if Rogers Hornsby would be cut in.

The haste in which the Yankees won the world championship was the reason for continued and unhappy business in the Cub offices. The closest force today started giving back around $200,000 in refunds for fifth game tickets. Chicago residents could get their refunds today by visiting a bank in the Wrigley building, while out of town holders of the useless tickets were requested to mail them to the club offices in the Wrigley building.

LEADING FIGURES IN YALE-CHICAGO CLASH

One of the first big inter-sectional games of the 1938 football season will be the meeting of Yale and the University of Chicago at New Haven Saturday. Max Stevens, Yale coach, and his captain, Johnny Wilbur, are confident Yale will repeat its last year's 21-0 victory over Coach Blagg's gridmen. The Chicago warriors, captained by Don Birney, are out for revenge. Via Sahlin, Chicago's veteran halfback, is in excellent shape and should be an outstanding figure in the clash. He is noted as an open field runner.

While her No. 3 team was dropping two out of three games to the No. 4 combination last night in the Ladies' Bowling league, Miss Mabo was spilling the maple at the Recreation alleys for the high score. She recorded here by a female bowler this season. Miss Mabo bowled over a high total of 224 pins in the second game of the three game series.

As the tale was told in Montreal, McGraw and some unnamed associates, were seeking to purchase one of the league's franchises with the idea of moving it across the border. Mentioned in connection

NOVACK FLOPPED BY ROBIN REED IN MAIN BOUT OF MAT SHOW

Pacific Coast Star Takes Last Two Falls; Miller Wins Semi-Final.

Bobby Novack's famed legs four seconds turned out to be just another hold last night when he clambered through the ropes of the Shovel gym arena to engage Robin Reed, the Reedsport, Oregon, flash in the two-hour main go of the regular Monday night wrestling program. Reed flopped Novack twice to take the decision and while going about the job of taking up the victory gave Novack some lessons in how wrestling should be done.

Novack's scissors worked once. He got the figure four hold on the Pacific coast matman early in the melee and took the opponent. After that, he might as well have hung up his favorite hold and gone home. Several times later he set his scissors but not once did the hold come even close to downing Reed.

Reed took the second and third falls without particular difficulty although at times Novack slipped out and gave Reed all that he had bargained for. Buckskins brought both the last two falls, these coming after Novack had been numbered dizzy by Reed's pile driving tactics.

Bud Carney took the first fall from Harry Miller in the 4-minute semi-final bout but couldn't resist the temptation to swing low and gave Reed all that he had in the second and was disqualified. The bout was given to Miller.

The farmer's strike, the upset of Senator Smith W. Brookhart, in-urgent Republican, by Henry Field in the primaries last spring, and his recent decision to run as an independent are recent developments in the Iowa situation the effects of which political observers are still attempting to weigh.

Agricultural relief and economic programs have provided the out-standing national issues of this year's campaign in Iowa.

Rhode Island gave its electoral votes to Alfred E. Smith by a narrow margin in 1928, but elected at the same time a Republican governor.

Smith's personal popularity and his stand on prohibition were credited with playing a large part in this 1928 victory.

In the state elections of 1928, Jesse H. Metcalf (R) was re-elected to the United States senate by a plurality of 2,613 over former Senator Peter G. Gerry (D), and Governor Norman S. Case (R) was elected governor by a plurality of 2,682.

13-Year-Old Evangelist Stirs Up Residents of Feud Region

By International News Service
PIKEVILLE, Ky.—Kentucky's latest apostle of "Hell fire and brimstone" is Daniel Johnson, youngest preacher ever to invade the feud-infested mountains.

Having just turned his thirteenth birthday, this schoolboy evangelist, standing less than five feet high, has launched a tour of the hill country made famous by the gun-fighting Hatfields, Ballies, McCoyes and Wrights.

When he opened his revival at the Union church at noon recently he was dwarfed by the tall mountain-tanner deacons and elders.

Undaunted, this juvenile minister expounded his doctrines to record-breaking crowds. In seven nights 1,084 attended the mountain church to hear him. Numerous bids have been made him since then for revivals at other Kentucky towns.

Johnson's beliefs are a queer admixture of the typical rural preacher's and of a progressive cleric's. He disbelieves in supernatural literature, advocates short sermons, defends good salaries and education and abhors factions.

Only "Bible sermons" and "Bible preachin'" go with Johnson. Everything from the pulpit should come from Holy Writ and not from some tome of philosophy or volume of history, he insists.

"Long-winded" preachers do more harm than good, Johnson holds; so he cuts his sermons short. "In my opinion twenty-five minutes to a half hour is long enough for anybody to preach," he says. "If it goes much over this time the people don't listen and sometimes make a lot of noise or don't come back."

Preachers deserve fair return for their labor and should have adequate education, Johnson affirms. He is now in the sixth grade at Jenkins public school and plans to go through college, majoring in theological subjects. His favorite school subjects are history and philosophy.

His name is on the Methodist church book and he says he considers himself a member of the Holiness church, a branch of the Church of God. He says it doesn't

Fifty and Fit

A MAN is as old—or as young—
as his organs.

At fifty, you can be in your prime.

Why go along with "fairly good health" when you might be enjoying vigor you haven't felt for years?

There's a simple little thing anyone can do to keep the vital organs
stimulated, and feel fit all the time.
People don't realize how sluggish they've grown until they've tried it.
The stimulant that will stir your system to new life is Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. It will make a most amazing difference in many ways.

This famous doctor's prescription is a delicious syrup made with fresh herbs, active senna, and pure pep-sin. It starts its good work with the first spoonful. That's all you need to drive away the dullness and headache of a bilious spell, and rid the system of that slow poison that saps your strength. It's better than a tonic for tired bowels, and unlike habit-forming laxatives you can take it freely or give it to any child.

And it isn't expensive.

Get some syrup pepsin today, and take a little tonight. Don't wait until you're sick to give your system this wonderful help. You can avoid those spells of biliousness or constipation. A spoonful every now and then is better than constant worry about the condition of your bowels,
or fear of auto-intoxication as you grow older. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin protects the system. All druggists keep this preparation.

And gas is clean. It leaves no

GERMANY PLANS WORLD AIR LINE

Object of Von Gronau's Trip To Make Survey

VON GRONAU'S ROUND-THE-WORLD PLANE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—That the round-the-world flight of Captain Wolfgang von Gronau, famous German aviator, and two fellow countrymen, is the preliminary step towards the establishment of the most ambitious aviation undertaking yet attempted has just been learned from an authentic source in Berlin.

The undertaking is nothing less than an air mail and passenger service which would link Berlin with the United States, Canada and the Orient. For years, in fact ever since aviation began to take such giant strides, Germany has been considering the possibility of such a world-wide line of aerial transport, but up to the present had cherished the belief that only aircraft of the Zepplin type would be suitable for the undertaking. Of course, one can readily see that the outfit for the inauguration of such a service would be terrific.

However, when von Gronau made two successful trips from Germany to the United States via flying boat, the powers that be in Berlin began to sit up and take notice. Here was an angle they had failed to take into consideration.

MARTIN JOHNSON

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, famous explorers and writers of their daring adventures, went into the jungles of Africa and made the only talking picture entirely made in the jungles.

"Congorilla," the result of this daring expedition, will show Wednesday through Saturday at the Marion, sponsored by the chorus of the Marion Lecture-Recital club.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were two years in making this picture and the only part man's hand had in the making was in turning the crank and in taking precaution that he was not seen by ferocious animals to be photographed and recorded.

Mrs. Johnson is the first woman to receive a white hunter's license in Africa. This license not only permits her to hunt wild game in any section of the dark continent, but also gives her the right to take less experienced hunters out on safari into the densest depths of the jungle.
